

Is adoption the right choice for you and for your child? How can you make a plan that will meet your needs and your child's needs?

You may have several of the following questions. All of which our centers staff will be able to answer.

- How can adoption be a good choice for my baby and me?
- Can I choose the family for my baby?
- How much contact can I have with my baby after the birth and after adoption?
- How soon after birth can my baby go to the parents I choose? How much will my child know about me?
- Does the expectant father have any rights?
- Can my child find me if he or she wants to search someday?
- Do I need an attorney to assist me with the adoption?

Most pregnant women often consider adoption because they are putting their baby's needs ahead of their own. It is our mission to connect these women who are ready and willing to make this life giving decision with a loving and committed adoptive family.

We believe that our personal involvement defines us and helps facilitate successful adoptions.
