Every life is lovingly created and continually sustained by God above, called to abide in Him and His unfailing love. We want to share this truth with every woman who feels alone in her unexpected pregnancy and every man who feels at a loss for the journey ahead—that they do not have to walk this road apart from Him. These bottles help us demonstrate God's love for them as well as their new baby, reminding them that when we abide in Christ, we are never without hope or support. When you fill a bottle, you are actively changing and saving lives by providing the invaluable funds needed to minister to their needs. Will you join us in helping families abide in God's love?
