SHE LOOKS TO YOU FOR HELP AND GUIDANCE DURING THIS CRITICAL TIME

You may not be able to make THE decision for her, but your input and your feelings are important. You can do more than support her decision, you can be a part of it! Take responsibility and protect your child. What you think matters!

STEP 1

Find out if she is PREGNANT

Fear comes from the unknown. Take the first step together by scheduling a pregnancy test at our center. She needs your support now, so don't wait.

STEP 2

Know her options, support her

If she is pregnant, our staff will discuss all of her options from parenting to adoption. Be present during this time so you receive all the facts to help her with her decision.

STEP 3

Find your voice, talk to our staff

We understand the pressure and panic you may be feeling. Meet one on one with our staff to discuss your thoughts and concerns. We can answer any questions you may have and help you find your voice.

STEP 4

Make a decision together!

You can do more than support her decision, you can be a part of it! Being involved from the beginning will ensure that your voice is heard. Now you are ready to make the decision that will effects your future, together!

When my girlfriend said she might be pregnant I panicked and shut down. The Hope Center encouraged me to support her from the start. Slowly the fear started to subside. I was able to help shoulder responsibility for what I set in motion and support her knowing the options for our future. Not only was my opinion important, but it made a difference!
