VISIONS OF THE SEASON

As we contemplate this season and the birth of Jesus, we praise Him for allowing us to see so many precious babies brought into this world that were almost lost.

Thanks to our supporters we were able to help their mothers grasp the vision of life.

WISHING YOU A VERY WONDERFUL CHRISTMAS,

The Pregnancy Center
