LOVE BEARS ALL THINGS,

SOHLS - INSERT

believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Bearing the emotional, mental, and physical pain of carrying an unplanned child can be a lot to handle. Many young women, men, and families don't believe they can rise up to calling. We are here to give them the resources, the love, the hope that they need to endure this period in their lives and be triumphant.

When a young woman or couple come into our center, we're immediately given an opportunity to love them. After a pregnancy test is administered and we see the positive result, then we get to love them both, not just the baby in the womb.

Every person who has walked into our office has left a mark on our hearts, and we wouldn't be able to experience that without you. Whatever gifts God has given you, they can help us to keep pouring out love.
